Report: The cold winter morning at Khyati Foundation started with the exciting game of Tug of War among the students of all departments. Each department had their girls team as well as boys team. Each team comprised of 10 participants. The students reached the college sports ground at sharp 8:00 a.m. It was a test of strength but the sheer willpower displayed by the students was phenomenal and exciting. Loud cheers could be heard all around. They had given their absolute best in each opportunity awarded to them, which is highly appreciated. In boys category, the winner was Pharmacy, followed by BBA and BCA. The first position in girls was secured by Pharmacy, followed by Physiotherapy and BBA, respectively. The winners of this category were awarded by Principal, Dr. Pragnesh Patani sir. It was a game enjoyed and appreciated by all. The KCP is also another incubation centre for the enthusiastic students who are very much interested in sports other than studies. The tug of war taught the students to maintain the balance between both extracurricular activities such as sports and studies to not get shunned or distracted by any one thing.
