

Polio Vaccination Programme

Report on Pulse Polio Programme

The “NSS Unit of Khyati College of Pharmacy”, Palodia, Ahmedabad had Participated in “National Pulse Polio Programme January 2021” 31st January, 2021 for Thaltej Urban Health Centre (UHC). All the students were volunteered for the activity and they have been provided with the certificate for participation and training for vaccination programme by Dr. Chetan Patel, Medical Officer, at Thaltej Urban Health Centre (UHC).

The vaccination programme has been conducted for 3 days, Students has to ensure the vaccination and the data preparation for the same. The volunteers have to be present at the centre at sharp 7:00 am to 6:00 pm for activity. The activity has inculcated the field work responsibility in the students as well as the basic knowledge for vaccination programme. The students who have provided the duty have also gained the remuneration for working on behalf of UHC.

Total 80 students have participated in the activity and performed the vaccination to the children under the age of 5.

Glimpses of Programme are as follows:

